

Harold Hill

Doctor of Chiropractic

OBJECTIVE:

I am enthusiastically seeking a challenging position that will effectively utilize my degree and skills in chiropractic, as well as my diagnostic, organizational, and interpersonal skills.

EDUCATION:

1991 – 1996	Palmer College of Chiropractic Degree Doctorate of Chiropractic	Davenport, IA
1990 – 1991	Scott Community College	Davenport, IA
1988 – 1990	St. Ambrose University	Davenport, IA

WORK EXPERIENCE:

June 2010 to Present Dallas, Texas

Star Rehabilitation/Texas Healthcare Neck & Back Clinics

- Responsible for all the aspects of patient daily care, including examinations, x-rays, ROF's, daily treatment, spinal corrective rehabilitation programs.
- Documentation, Case Management, Reports, Active and Passive Therapy
- Developing rehabilitation programs for work hardening and chronic pain programs

January 2005 to Present

Fort Worth, Texas

Hill Family Chiropractic

- Responsible for the overall case management of patients, including extensive physical examinations, x-rays with interpretation, report of findings, treatment, comprehensive case notes, manual physical therapy and modalities, case reviews and narratives.

June 2007 to June 2009

Dallas, Texas

North Dallas Rehab & Wellness

- Responsible for all the aspects of patient daily care, including examinations, x-rays, ROF's, daily treatment, spinal corrective rehabilitation programs.
- Documentation, Case Management, Reports, Active and Passive Therapy
- Developing rehabilitation programs for work hardening and chronic pain programs

March 2005 to June 2007

Mesquite, Texas

American Chiropractic: Dr. Paul Liechty, D.C.

- Responsible for the overall case management of patients, including extensive physical examinations, x-rays with interpretation, report of findings, treatment, comprehensive case notes, manual physical therapy and modalities, case reviews and narratives.
- Currently practicing in a high – volume office treating approximately 400 patient visits per week, utilizing Gibson Management protocols.
- Teleconferences with other health care providers.
- Conduct weekly spinal care classes, daily patient education, and patient nutrition.

September 2004 – March 2005

Forney, Texas

All Injury Chiropractic

- Responsible for all aspects of patient care.
- Documentation, Case Management, Reports, Active and Passive Therapy
- Developing rehabilitation programs for work hardening and chronic pain programs

June 2003 – June 2004

Kirkland, Washington

Avalon Chiropractic: Dr Mark Travers

- Responsible for all the aspects of patient daily care, including examinations, x-rays, ROF's, daily treatment, spinal corrective rehabilitation programs.
- Clinic volume was 200 –250 patient visits per week utilizing a combination of Body by God and Singer management protocols. I was only Doctor in clinic.
- Conducted spinal care classes, patient daily education, and external marketing.

January 2002 – June 2003

Longview, Texas

Heuser Chiropractic: Dr Charles Heuser, D.C.

- Solo Doctor in clinic and it was my responsibility to manage all aspects of patient care and a staff of four.
- Also performed internal and external marketing to build the clinic patient numbers.
- Clinic used the Clinic Masters Management procedures.

1998 – 2001

Dallas, Texas

Midway North Chiropractic – Owned clinic

- Was responsible for all aspects of patient care and running clinic.
- Clinic used Prescott Group Management protocols.

1997 – 1998

Fort Worth, Texas

Griffin Chiropractic: Dr. Bob Griffin, D.C. - retired

- As an associate doctor I handled all aspects of patient care. I performed consultations, exams, x-rays, report of findings, spinal care classes, daily patient treatment and documentation (70-80 patient visits per day).
- I worked side by side with a second-generation chiropractic that had practiced for over forty years.
- The Doctor used the original Parker Management System protocols, as he had been Dr. Parker's lead speaker for 23 years, who trained some of the biggest Chiropractic consultants.

1996

Irving, Texas

Chiropractic Center: Dr. Edward J. Crump, D.C.

- I was able to follow and work side by side with a doctor who had been in practice for close to forty years.
- I expanded my skills in performing the Gonstead technique as the doctor had attended over a hundred Gonstead seminars.
- Graduated in October of 1996